Our privacy policy

As an Illinois not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization in Chicago, Life Care at Home holds a high regard for an individual's right to privacy. We are committed to protecting your security when visiting our website. The information we gather on this site is used for no other purpose than helping individuals and families determine their needs and wants.

Gathering, modifying and removing information

Life Care at Home may request and/or collect personal information on its website that you choose to provide ("personal information") when you use this website to inquire about services, ask to receive more information or to be contacted by a Life Care at Home representative.

If you would like to review, correct or remove your personal information you have shared on our website, please contact Life Care at Home via USPS mail, email or a phone call. We then will take all reasonable efforts to complete the changes you requested or remove your information from our database.

Use and disclosure of information

The personal information you provide will be available only to very select staff members of Life Care at Home who will use it to respond to your inquiries about Life Care at Home.

This use may include periodic telephone calls, as well as sending information via USPS and email based on the preferences you express. Life Care at Home does not sell or furnish personal information to any other organization to use for selling its products or services.

Life Care at Home might disclose personal information and non-personal information if such disclosure is required by law; to protect and/or defend the rights of Life Care at Home; and/or to protect the personal safety of any individual.

In the event all, or substantially all, of Life Care at Home' ownership and/or assets are transferred or sold to another entity; Life Care at Home is merged with another entity; or there is a change of control of Life Care at Home, Life Care at Home may transfer personal information and non-personal information to the successor entity. If this situation occurs, Life Care at Home will be required to notify you of this change.

Internet communication

It is possible communication and submission of information over the Internet might not be secure. Please consider this fact before communicating or submitting any personal or confidential information through the Life Care at Home website.
